-TO-DELINQUENT TAX-PAYERS

By a decree of the United States Circuit Court, entered February 12, 1879, it is made my duty "to demand and sollect all the unpaid taxes due to the city of Memphis, in the lawful money of the United States," and if necessary, "to bring actions at law, or suits in equity, against any person owing debts or taxes to the city of Memphis."

This is, therefore, to make such demand, and to notify all persons to come forward in obedience to said deeree, and make prempt payment of all such indobtedness.

With a full appreciation of the severe stringency which from many caures embarrasses our people, I most respectfully urge all debtors to make every reasonable sacrince to comply with this decree, and thus avoid liftigation and expense. These unpaid taxes are an incubus on Memphis, most scriously impeding its progress. Our creditors greatly overestimate their real value, much to our positive injury. Their confident belief thist nearly three millions of dollars, including 1878, should be collected on back taxes, is well calculated to induce impatience and compisint. Meurais, Texx., March 1, 1879.

calculated to induce impatience and complaint.

A faithful payment of all taxes actually due would disabuse their minds of this error, and effectually encourage a much more liberal spirit toward us in the future.

When all our citizens stand equal in the discharge of their tax obligations, and the payment of our city debt shall depend alone on future assessments, the situation will be much more readily comprehended by our creditors, and it cannot be doubted that the effect would be highly favorable to us. The prompt payment of these back taxes would, beyond all doubt, lend directly to relief from our present embarrassment and specify to a return of former prosperity. Every good citizen of Memphis is deeply interested in a prompt compliance with the order of the Court.

All taxes due the city will be received at tax-collector's office, City Hall, execut those for 1878, which are to be paid to George B. Fleece, county trustee. s-13 T. J. LATHAM, Receiver.
